DOMESTIC

FRENCH,

How graceful was that Orcc'au creed Which taught that tongues of old Dwelt in the mountain and the mead, and where the torrends soll'd; And that in times of sacred fear, With sweet, mysterious moons, They spoke aloue; while some pale squr Interpreted their tones.

And, lady, why should we not deem
That in each echoing bill,
And sounding wood, and dancing stream,
A language inners still?
No lovelier scoves round Delphi spread
Than round thee s retch divine;
Nor Grecian mail: bent brigater head
By baunced stream than thine.

Morn, noon, and eve—bird, beam and breeze,
Here blend to bless the day;
May portion of their memories
Be ever round thy way!
Sweet waters for the weary bark,
Through parching eeas that ealls;
Friends may grow talse and fortune dark,
But Nature never tails.

Dlantation Bitters.

WHAT BRICK POMEROY DID WRITE AND WHAT HE DID NOT WRITE

Eight o'clock, and he is not here yet! How dresry this little room does seem, and I am so lone some! Ten q'clock. How I wish he would come It is so lonely here with the children asleep! Onc he loved to stay with me, but now, alas! Twelve o'clock, and I am so tired, I cannot sleep! My beart aches and grows sad. I am growing old, per haps. May be my face is not as fair as once, but my neart is as warm, though it is often sad.

ARE YOU DYSPEPTIC. Nervous, jaundiced, low spirited, weak, or are you sick and don't know what ails you; then try Plantstion Bitters and our word for it, it will cure you.

ONE O'CLOCK. What charms can he find in that foul-scented coom, by that dusty table, cutting and dealing those dusty cards, filling himself with poison, tainting his breath, ruining his mind, undermining his constitu tion, planting seeds of disease, squandering his money, clouded with smoke, tired with excitement Is this happiness? is this life? Is this our mission Oh! I am so tired, do come home.

PLANTATION BITTERS. This delictous cordial and fine tonic is now hailed by thousands as the great health giver and retorer. Resolve to buy a bottle, and don't sleep or it. Be wise in time. Sold by all druggisis.

"DO YOU GO DOWN TOWN TO-NIGHT, MY PET ?" "No darling, I have labored enough to-day Why should I flee from home, from happiness, from thee? Life is full short to love-too short to squander. love the photograph of my eart too well. No dar ling, my heart is here; here let me keep it company.

PLANTATION BITTERS Are always pure, reliable. They are strengthenin and invigorating, and are Evhausted Na ure's great restorer. As an agreeable and pleasant tonic and appetizer, they cannot be excelled.

THEY WHO ARE RICH, Are they who mind their own business. Find a har py man or woman, and the affairs of another troubl them but a little. It is none of your business if the minister kisses one of the sisters, or one of the sis ters time salutes the minister. It cannot effect yo when a man you know calls on a girl you don't know or one you do What if there is kissing behind the door, in tunnels, and when the night is dark at the vestibule of the hurch, or even ever the gate. Would you not do the same thing if the chance was offered?

A WINE GLASS FULL Of Plantation Bitters, taken three times a day, before ach merl, will make the flame of life again burn brightly, and illuminate a once wretched existence For ladies it is an elegant and gentle stimulant, just such as they require.

"I WENT TO THE LAND OF STEADY HABITS." I wanted to hand several "bricks" down to pos crity, and was told by father that with a New Engand girl for a wife, I could raise more children, grow more onious, sain more ee's, sing more psalms know more of what was going on in the neighborhood, hear more scandal, sleep loss nights, have more relatives, eat more beaus, love myself and hate thers more, and get more out of a dollar, than any other sort of woman in this happy country so-called.

PLANTATION BUTTERS.

Bark (known the world over for its curative proper ties), and will fortify the syst m against disease caused by change of water and diet. If you are in elined to dyspepsis, try it. If you have the chills and fever, or any kindred disease, by all means take Plantation Bitters. They are sold by all druggists of repute.

AND HE HAD A FEMALE CHILD. Whose name was Heva Brightwater, and who was wenty-nine years old; who wore red stockings, red garters, metal tipped shoes, ereen spectacles, and the prettiest red hair the world ever see eyes on or into. Hexa, a true New England gal, chewed wads of pine gum, and sweetened her broth with onions Hexa wasn't so much handsomer than a doll as to make the coll faint, but she was intelligent; in fact, intelligence was her best hold but one; she was great on making baby garments, and had her trunks full, packed away, that she might be reedy as willing when the evil hour drew nigh, as she trusted it would from year to year.

He had friends, and money, and a loving family, and posi-tion, and influence, and self-respect, and integrify, and a future of usefulness before him. But, my boy, he don't look like it now. He was elected to an important office. He forgot the lessons his good mother taught him, and was asked by designing politi lans to sell his vote to a party of swindlers; he ould not for the life of him give articulation to that little word, and so he fell.

HOW OFTEN DO WE HEAR THE COMPLAINT, From mother and fother, that the son or daughter is not well; that they have no appetite; that they teel languid; that the head sches all the time; that they are growing thin and feeble, and that they have no life nor energy left. And the questions are often asked, What shall I do for them? What shall I give them? Our answer is, let them try Plantation Bitters moderately, three times a day, and our word for it they will recover.

AND HERE VALTER. IS A YOUNG MAN, Just like you and us, my boy. He has wit, sense education, intelligence, friends, ambition, and is loved. He has a knowledge of the world, acquired by mixing with its people. He has ambition and the same field in which to win honor, feme and dis tinction, as hed Franklin, Fulton. Morse, and a host of others. He is naturally exact, but, Vaitee, my boy, as he meets us do you see the excess of mois-ture in his eye, the httle purty ridge under at the gradual turning of the beautiful corners of the mouth his mether so loved to kiss. These, my boy, tell a sad tale of early shipwreck, of disease, of premature death, of neglected and squandered gifts. December 7

WHEN YOU ARE FXHAUSTED BY OVERWORK of head or hand, and feel the need of something in-vigorating, don't drink whiskey or any intoxics ting thing, whe her under the name of stitlers or other. wise. Such articles give just as much strength to your weary bods and mind as the whin gives to the jaded horse, and no more. Alcoholic stimulants are injurious to Neive health, and are ALWAYS followed by DEPRESSING REACTION.

Dodd's Nervine and Invigorator Bodd's Nervine and Invigorator is a TONIO and GENTLE STIMULANT which is NOT attended by REACHON. What it gains for you it maintains. When it refreshes body or mind, it refreshes with natural strength that comes to stay. We are not recommending teetotalism in the interest of any faction; but long and extended observation teaches us that he who resorts to the bottle for rest or recuperation, will find, as he keeps at it, that he is kindling a fire in his bones which will consume like the flames of perdition. Turn from it. Take a tonic that will refresh and not destroy. DODD's NERVINE is for saie by all Druggists. Price One Dollar. See Book of Certificates that accompanies each bottle.
